POTTER & JACOBSEN EARN 2017 CLEVELAND GOLF/SRIXON/XXIO RMSPGA SNAKE RIVER CHAPTER FACILITY CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE

A cold and rainy start eased off after a few holes and led to a cool and windy afternoon as twenty-one professional teams competed in the 2017 Cleveland Golf/Srixon/XXIO RMSPGA Snake River Chapter Facility Championship. Jon Potter, PGA Director of Golf with his PGA Head Professional partner Jason Jacobsen, both from Idaho Falls (Idaho) Country Club, shot rounds of 68 and 66 for a two-round total of 6-under-par 134 to outlast the city of Rexburg’s Teton Lakes Golf Course duo of PGA Head Professional Tyson McFarland and his assistant Taylor Price by 2 shots. Alone in 3rd place one shot behind were the Eagle, Idaho, BanBury Golf Course team of PGA Head Professional Ben Bryson and assistant professional Katie Somers. The rest of the field was closely bunched in pursuit of the title and the complete results are available at rockymountainpga.com.

The single day 36-hole Championship was contested Monday, April 10, at the 6325 yard, par 70 layout at Quail Hollow Golf Club in Boise, Idaho. The first round was a better ball of partners and the second round was a modified alternate shot (Chapman) format. Both players on each two-person team must be employed at the same facility.

The Rocky Mountain Section PGA wishes to thank Quail Hollow Golf Club PGA Professionals Matt Ennis and Troy Dykstra and their staff for hosting the event. A sincere thank you goes out to the title sponsor sales representative Ethan Schofield from Cleveland Golf/Srixon/XXIO for his sponsorship of the tournament. Thanks to sales representative Lori Putnam, PGA, of Black Clover and Ken Allen, PGA Golf Sales for their kind support. Appreciation is also extended to OMEGA and The PGA Tour for their continued support of selected RMSPGA events.

ALLEN & MOORE HOLD ON TO WIN YELLOWSTONE CHAPTER PRO-PRO

Jeff Allen, PGA Assistant Professional at Hilands Golf Course in Billings, Montana, with partner Tim Moore, PGA Teaching Professional at Mitchell Golf in Billings, won the 2017 Yellowstone Chapter PGA Pro-Pro, supported by Black Clover, OMEGA and The PGA Tour. Allen and Moore finished with a 54-hole total of 7-under-par, 206. Three teams tied for second a single stroke behind at 6-under-par 207. Those two-person second place teams were Brian Eekhoff, PGA Head Professional at Cottonwood Hills Golf Course in Bozeman, Montana and Bernie Blan, PGA Head Professional at Riverton (Wyoming) Country Club; Renzi Lee, PGA Head Professional at Lake Hills Golf Course in Billings and Jonathan McAleer, PGA Head Professional at Bridger Creek Golf Course in Bozeman; and Kelbi Lee, PGA Assistant Professional and Michael Duquette, PGA General Manager at Black Bull in Bozeman.

The event was contested on the 6138 yard Hilands Golf Club in Billings, Montana, on April 10th and 11th. The formats of play for the event included a scramble the first 18 holes, four-ball stroke play the second 18 holes, and modified alternate shot (Chapman) the final 18 holes.

The Yellowstone Chapter thanks Doug Hagen, PGA General Manager, Eddie Kavran, PGA Head Professional, and the Hilands Golf Club and its staff for hosting the event. The Chapter also thanks Black Clover and representative Lori Putnam, PGA, OMEGA and The PGA Tour for their support of the event.
LEE BROTHERS TAKE PRO-PRO SHOOTOUT TITLE

Unseasonably perfect weather was the surprise in late May as PGA Professional brothers Kelbi Lee, Assistant Professional from Black Bull in Bozeman, Mont., and Renzi Lee, Head Professional from Lake Hills Golf Club in Billings, Mont., teamed together to fire a three round total of 19-under-par to win the 2017 TaylorMade-adidas, Ashworth Golf and Adams Golf Rocky Mountain Section PGA Pro-Pro Shootout, supported by The PGA TOUR, OMEGA and Bushnell Golf. Their rounds of 65-62-64=191 was good for a single shot victory over the team of Brent Fleshman, PGA Head Professional at Jackpot (Nev.) Golf Club with his partner Zayne Slotten, assistant professional at Twin Falls (Idaho) Golf Course. Jason Jacobsen, PGA Head Professional at Idaho Falls (Idaho) Country Club and his partner Ryan Nielsen, head professional at Falcon Crest Golf Course in Kuna, Idaho, finished alone in third place 2 shots behind.

In the Senior Division, 54 holes was not enough as Andy Hollister, PGA, and Jeff Taylor, PGA, needed two extra holes to outlast PGA Teaching Professional Stoney Brown from the Valley Club in Sun Valley, Idaho, and PGA Director of Instruction Doyle Corbett from Sun Valley (Idaho) Resort. Both teams finished wish 10-under-par totals of 200 to edge out the formidable past champions in third place alone, Tom Anderson, PGA Head Professional at Laurel (Mont.) Golf Club, with his partner, PGA Director of Golf Bob Eames from Yellowstone Country Club in Billings, Mont.

The first two rounds of the 54-hole Shootout were played on Monday, May 22nd and the formats were four-ball stroke play and scramble. The final round was played on Tuesday, May 23rd and the format was modified alternate shot. Forty-five two-person professional teams competed from the Rocky Mountain Section PGA. Pinecrest Golf Club in Idaho Falls, Idaho, served as the host site for the event.

The Rocky Mountain Section PGA would like to thank John Johnson, Territory Sales Manager of TaylorMade and Adams Golf and Jeff Smith of adidas and Ashworth Golf for the Title sponsorship. Appreciation is also extended to Bushnell Golf representative Charley Carlson, The PGA TOUR and OMEGA for supporting this event. The Rocky Mountain PGA also thanks Tim Reinke, PGA Head Professional at Pinecrest Golf Club and his hospitable staff for hosting the championship.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN SECTION PGA FOUNDATION NAMES 2017 LARRY MALONE AND YELLOWSTONE CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIP AWARD WINNERS

The Rocky Mountain Section PGA Foundation has named fourteen students as Scholarship Award winners for 2017. The 2017 Rocky Mountain Section PGA Foundation Scholarship Award winners are: Ryan Bates, Elko, Nevada; Tanna Campbell, Big Timber, Montana; Colten Cordingley, Rexburg, Idaho; Danielle Doerfllein, Sun Valley, Idaho; Isabelle Hahn, Billings, Montana; Logan Martin, Billings, Montana; Ragan McGilvery, Nampa, Idaho; Kelsey Parker, Boise, Idaho; Cordell Seidler, Meridian, Idaho; Ronald Stephenson, Gooding, Idaho; Caleb Trost, Billings, Montana; Vanessa Van Vleet, Preston, Idaho; Kaylee Walton, Paul, Idaho; and Reed Wasson, Harlowton, Montana.

Each Rocky Mountain Section PGA Foundation Scholarship Award winner will receive $1,000 to assist with expenses related to his or her college education for the 2017-2018 academic year.

The Rocky Mountain Section PGA Foundation’s Scholarship Award is awarded annually to college-bound high school seniors based on academic achievement, community and extracurricular activity, leadership, financial need and involvement and contribution to the game of golf. Continued pg. 6

PGA OF AMERICA NAMES MONTE KOCH, PGA
PACIFIC NORTHWEST/ROCKY MOUNTAIN SECTIONS
EMPLOYMENT CONSULTANT

PGA Employment Services is pleased to announce Monte Koch, PGA will join the expanded team of 18 employment consultants now serving PGA Members and employers across the country. The addition of eight new field consultants will provide the team a unique opportunity to forge stronger relationships with both PGA Members and PGA employers through the overall smaller territories each Consultant will manage.

Koch, a PGA Certified Professional, will transition from his current role of Player Development Regional Manager into the role of Employment Consultant for the PGA of America and is dedicated to the Pacific Northwest and Rocky Mountain PGA Sections. His focus is to provide career-coaching for PGA Professionals, along with employment consultation for course owners, club managers and the like, in order to create significant and measurable revenue increases, deeper consumer/member engagement, and more.

With more than 25 years in golf, Koch is proud of his start as a greenskeeper at the City of Portland’s Heron Lakes Golf Course. A native of Beaverton, Oregon, he is a graduate of the PGA Professional Golf Management program at New Mexico State University. After graduation, Koch moved to the Northern California PGA Section (NCPGA) and his first role at Saddle Creek Golf Club. He worked for more than 15 years at facilities in the NCPGA Section. During that time, Koch served in various roles including General Manager, Director of Golf and Head Golf Professional at multiple facility types (including private, semi-private/daily fee and municipal.)

Prior to joining the PGA, he worked at Chardonnay Golf Club in the Napa Valley. While in the NCPGA, Koch served as a Director for the Section, including two years each as Secretary, Vice President and President. He was involved in the formative years of the California Alliance for Golf (CAG), representing the NCPGA among golf industry leaders. Koch also represented the Northern California PGA Foundation as a Director and Officer. In 2008, he won the Section’s Bill Strausbaugh Award, followed by its Golf Professional of the Year Award in 2011.

Koch, his wife Karen and four children (Mitchell, Mason, Madeline and Miller) reside in Auburn, Washington.
