

KLEINKOPF AND HOFLAND VICTORIOUS AT PRO-PRO SHOOTOUT

Jeff Smith, Travis Hofland, Brett Kleinkopf and John Johnson

Jeff Smith, John Wallace,
Kevin Burton
and John Johnson

Brett Kleinkopf, PGA Assistant Professional at Hillcrest Country Club in Boise, Idaho, and Travis Hofland, assistant professional at Twin Falls Golf Club in Twin Falls, Idaho, won the 2013 TaylorMade-adidas and Ashworth Golf Rocky Mountain Section PGA Pro-Pro Shootout, supported by The PGA TOUR, SkyCaddie and Maui Jim. Their 17-under-par, 54-hole total of 193 was good for a tie with Zach Abels, assistant professional at Canyon Springs Golf Course in Twin Falls, Idaho, and his partner John Shaw, assistant professional at Jackpot Golf Club in Jackpot, Nev. Kleinkopf and Hofland won the tournament by making a birdie on the first playoff hole against Abels and Shaw.

In the Senior Division Kevin Burton, PGA, coach of Boise State University men's golf team, and John Wallace, PGA, Nampa, Idaho, outlasted the 12 team Senior Division field shooting a 16-under-par score of 200 to beat out the teams of John Graham, PGA Head Professional at Sand Creek Golf Course in Idaho Falls, Idaho, with Rob Ellis, PGA Head Professional at Gooding Country Club in Gooding, Idaho, and the team of Denny Howell, PGA, Eagle, Idaho and Jeff Thomsen, PGA, Boise, Idaho.

The first two rounds of the 54-hole Shootout were played on Monday, May 20th and the formats were four-ball stroke play and scramble. The final round was played on Tuesday, May 21st and the format was modified alternate shot. Forty-two two-person professional teams competed from the Rocky Mountain Section PGA. Pinecrest Golf Club in Idaho Falls, Idaho, served as the host site for the event.

The Rocky Mountain PGA would like to thank John Johnson, Territory Sales Manager of TaylorMade and Jeff Smith of adidas and Ashworth Golf for the title sponsorship. Appreciation is also extended to SkyCaddie, Maui Jim Sunglasses, and The PGA TOUR for supporting this event. The Rocky Mountain PGA also thanks Tim Reinke, PGA Head Professional at Pinecrest Golf Club and his staff for hosting the event.

RMSPGA ANNUAL MEETING RECAP

The Section held its Annual Meeting, including the Section Award presentations, on Sunday, May 19th at the Residence Inn by Marriott in Idaho Falls, Idaho. There were 68 members and apprentices in attendance.

President Ron Rawls, PGA Head Professional at Crane Creek Country Club in Boise, Idaho, thanked all those in attendance and shared the appreciation of the Section for the support of PGA National Resort & Spa, the sponsor of the 2013 RMSPGA Annual Meeting.

Greg Wietzel, Director of Parks and Recreation was present and welcomed everyone to Idaho Falls and Pinecrest.

Scott Brandt, PGA, in his second year as District #9 Director from Utah provided a PowerPoint presentation on various national initiatives. He reviewed the member and apprentice education programs, the Drive, Chip and Putt Championship, the 6% increase in rounds as compared to 2011 and highlighted the fact that 83% of those amateurs taking Get Golf Ready classes continued to play or practice within their first year. He also mentioned that 61% of the Get Golf Ready participants are women. Scott also reviewed the PGA Spring Conference of Leaders, the increased role of committees in national governance and the fact that the PGA of America Board of Directors is aware of the challenges Sections face and that staff is working with the National Executive Director's Committee to address and solve them.

Paul Levy, Secretary of the PGA of America gave a brief presentation that covered several subjects focusing on the concern over anchoring (at the time of the meeting the ban had not been formalized), the properties with a focus on the Port St. Lucie operation, and the desire for continuity in leadership as far as planning for the future of the Association. Other topics included further updates to the digital offerings (PGA.com, PGALinks, etc.) of the Association and the continuing import of growth of the game, i.e., Golf 2.0. He mentioned that more employees had been hired at headquarters and that those new hires would be revenue producers. This was mentioned after he showed a PowerPoint slide showing expenses outpacing revenues at HQ.

Secretary Levy also mentioned that section funding was on the table and he welcomed questions and those focused on the loss at Port St. Lucie, the anchoring issue and section funding.

Executive Director Vaughn Jenkins spoke about the continuing discussions surrounding section funding and that he is committed to our Section being heard. He also commented that the Section is fortunate to have dedicated staff in the persons of Michael Kastner and Laurie Draper.

Elections were held for Section offices and the following individuals were sworn in as Board of Directors members for 2013 and 2014: David Snyder, President; James Brown, Vice-President; John VanVleet, Secretary; Ron Rawls, Honorary President; Brandon Kahl, President; Yellowstone Chapter; Eddie Kavran, Vice-President, Yellowstone Chapter; Ryan Troxel, Secretary, Yellowstone Chapter; Dave Carollo, President, Snake River Chapter; Brett Cordingley, Vice-President, Snake River Chapter; and Dustin Ames, Secretary, Snake River Chapter.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the 2012 Rocky Mountain Section Special Award Winners were presented with their awards. The appropriate photos follow below:

ROCKY MOUNTAIN PGA SECTION RECOGNIZES DAVID GOSS WITH HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

The Rocky Mountain Section PGA named David Goss of Boise, Idaho, an Honorary Member. Goss, a current board member of the Rocky Mountain Section PGA Foundation, is the fourth Honorary Member selected by the Rocky Mountain Section and was one of the founders of the Foundation. He was recognized at the 2013 Annual Meeting of the Rocky Mountain Section.

David has a long history of service to golf and the community that includes his current involvement as a board member of the Rocky Mountain Section PGA Foundation and has long served as counsel to the Rocky Mountain Section PGA. He has also served as a board member of The First Tee of Idaho and was President of Hillcrest Country Club in 2000. David was Chair of the first two Boys and Girls Club golf tournaments; served as the 18th green announcer at the Boise Open from 1993-2008; and was Chairman of the Boise Open in 1992 and 1993. A fine player, David was Hillcrest Club Champion in 2000.

The Honorary Membership Award is the highest honor paid to individuals by the Rocky Mountain Section who do not hold membership in the PGA of America. The honoree is chosen based on his or her outstanding support of the Rocky Mountain PGA Section, contribution to the game of golf, and distinguished service and support to the golf community.

“The Rocky Mountain PGA and the entire golf community hold David Goss in the very highest esteem,” states Ron Rawls, Honorary President of the Rocky Mountain Section PGA. Rawls adds, “David has been, and is, a true friend of the RMSPGA Member and their interests. In his many years of service to the Section and Foundation he has conducted himself in a manner that reflects back positively on both him and those he represents. His consistent actions, all behind the scenes, have aided professional, amateur and junior golfers within the Section. We are truly thankful for his past and continued efforts for the Rocky Mountain Section PGA and Rocky Mountain Section PGA Foundation that have benefited the PGA Members and the amateurs whom they serve. We are happy to have honored David as an honorary member.”
